CHAIRS | Indoor
ROBERTO LAZZERONI

Designed by Roberto Lazzeroni for Baxter, Inga is a collection comprising a high stool and chair that effortlessly merges Italian elegance with enveloping comfort in a refined, contemporary design. A natural evolution of the Inga pouf, the stool and chair are defined by their slender base and ergonomically shaped backrest that gently supports the sitter. The open cylindrical structure integrates a practical metal footrest, while the leather-upholstered padding offers an unparalleled comfort experience. Available in two different heights, Inga blends naturally into modern kitchens, islands and counters, as well as enhancing premium contract spaces. A subtle tone-on-tone decorative profile highlights the craftsmanship and attention to detail—making Inga a true symbol of contemporary high-end design.
